Plain Talk to the Indians.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—General Walker, Commissioner of Indian Affairs, had a conference with the Kiowa, Comanche and Apache delegations of Indians to day, and in plain language informed them that the Government had ceased to accept mere professions of friendship and good faith. It now requires evidences of their honesty of purpose in regard to the terms dictated." General Walker then specified what they had personally to do, telling them that they must, before the 15th of December, clear every Indian of their tribes within ten miles of Fort Sill, and stay there until spring without giving any trouble, and also they must restore all stolen animals or make them good from their own stock. He informed them further that the Government would not treat with those portions of tribes and bands who declined to send delegations to Washington, and troops would be directed to commence operations against them shortly, and all Indians found outside the place specified by the 15th of December would be punished summarily. The Indians appeared rather surprised at this talk, but promised to do all that was required of them, though they were doubtful about their being able to get in all the bands.

Decision of San Juan Island Question.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—A special dispatch from London says that the written judgment in the San Juan Arbitration now only wants the signature of the Emperor. It declares in favor of the United States, making the Canal DeHaro the boundary. The cause of delay in communicating the judgment is that an English diplomatic intrigue is on foot, the object of which is to so modify the Emperor's judgment as to cause the arbitration to become a failure. Russell, English Minister at Berlin, therefore strives to prevent the Emperor from acting on the judgment, and is endeavoring to raise a false issue. The articles in the Times of October 18, was inspired by the foreign office, and presents the view of the Government. It argues that the Emperor may decide upon any one of three channels, and falsify the words of the treaty. Judgment is required on two special points. Should Russell fail to get a declaration favoring this intermediate channel for the boundary, he is to labor for a negative judgment, that is, that neither DeHaro nor the Rosario is the channel described in the treaty. Thus the arbitration will fail, like that submitted previously to the King of the Netherlands, who, instead of giving a definite decision, recommended a compromise. The efforts of Princess Victoria, wife of the Crown Prince, have been enlisted by those engaged in the intrigue. Rabor, a Jew banker, and an intimate associate of Bismarck, is very useful in the matter to Russell. He has just been appointed British Consul General at Berlin.

Spread of Horse Disease.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—The horse disease which is raging in the cities of Western New York, has broken out here and at Brooklyn, with great violence. Reporters who have visited most of the principal stables, say 7,000 horses were affected up to last evening. The disease spreads with terrible rapidity. It is stated that in one of the large stables, in four hours after the first case appeared, 1,000 horses were attacked There are grave fears that the disease will spread so as to materially interrupt the means of traffic throughout the city.

Exchange of Honors.

A. B. Cornell has resigned the Surveyorship of New York, to accept the nomination for the Assembly.

Pronounced Guilty.

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—The jury in the criminal court, in the case of Thomas Cullen, charged with the murder of James McWilliams, the young printer, a few weeks since, have returned a verdict of guilty, and fixed the punishment at imprisonment for life.

Smallpox in St. Louis.

Specials from St. Louis represent the smallpox as raging there fearfully, and state that the number of cases in the third week of October was over 200. The dispatches state that the press have agreed to suppress the facts for fear of injuring trade. As the regular press dispatches have made no mention of such a state of affairs as represented by these specials, it is probable the statements are exaggerated.

ARIZONA.

Gen. Howard's Treatment of the Indians.

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 23.—Gen. Howard, and Aid, Capt. S. Baden, arrived this morning and proceeded directly to San Francisco. Gen. Howard reports having passed eleven days in the camp of the great Apache Chief Cachise. The General says he has tried what has never been tried before, following him up to his mountain fastnesses and throwing himself in the power of the Apaches and making a peace in the midst of the Indians, instead of bringing chiefs into Government forts. Cachise has promised to keep open all roads, return all stolen property and keep his subjects under subjection in consideration of establishing Chiricahua reservation. He abolished Camp Mo-Dowell and contracted all the others.

In the District Court to day the suit to quiet title lands in the Bay was decided in favor of Taggart and Howard, for the city.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 23.—The railroad subsidy question will become the leading issue in the next election. The opponents of Sanford & Co. will canvass the county against the scheme and favor generally a road to connect with the Texas Pacific. The loss of trade with the Owen's river and Corro Gordo for bullion and supplies diverted by way of Blackersfield to San Francisco by rail, has been estimated to be a loss to this city of about $40,000 per month.

NEVADA.

PIOCHE, Oct. 23.—Kendall and Goodwin, Democratic and Republican candidate for Congress, are addressing a large audience this evening.

Parties who arrived last evening from the coal and iron mines at Kannarra, Utah, have arranged to supply this market with coal from that place

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct 23.—The city is alive with political enthusiasm to-night. The supporters of Grant and Wilson are being addressed by J. G. Eastman, followed by John R. Swift. Ladies form a goodly proportion of the large audience in attendance. The Greeley meeting is on the street opposite. Dr. Shorb, of San Francisco, is addressing a moderately sized audience.

Total receipts of the late Catholic fair here $8,727 50.

The jury in the case of Jacob Wilkinson, accused of the murder of Harriet Burkhardt, brought in a verdict of guilty of murder in the second degree. His counsel, Al. Dudley, had played the bold and shrewd game of making it appear that death resulted from suicide. The prisoner was placed on the stand and swore that the woman shot herself in his presence with his pistol, but that being excited, and afraid that he might be implicated, he took it away with him and said nothing about the occurrence to others in the house. On the jury was a man who had been tried for his life in this city, and who was a customer of Wilkinson's when he kept a barber shop in Masatlan some years ago. It is thought that the suicide pretense affected some of the jury and forced a compromise verdict, as the jury were so impressed by the pretense that after being out half an hour, they sent for the clothing worn by the deceased at the time of her death, in order to more fully understand the place of the wound and course of the ball

A cargo of 22,400 seal skins arrived to day from Alaska by the brig Olga, for the American Company.

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES.

DOWNIEVILLE, Oct. 23.—The business portion of Howland Flat was burned this morning at daylight. The fire caught from a stovepipe in Pat. Hanley's Hotel. Mrs. Hanley and daughter were badly burned.

YREKA, Oct. 23.—L. M. Faulkne and A. P. VanDusen are now addressing a large Republican meeting in Turner's hall.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

From Victoria

VICTORIA, Oct. 23.—Mr. Richardson, the geologist, and assistants, together with Mr C T. Parne and Mr. J. Andrews, went over the new trail from Quail Call to Alberni, a few days ago. The route is getting blocked by fallen timber At Alberni the Indians were drunk and saucy. Mr. Taylor and other white men there are well. Mr. Richardson has got down to Nanaimo and will be down here on the Otter.

A young lad named Jones came down on the Maude yesterday, coming to receive medical treatment. A charge of buckshot accidentally entered his neck and chin, and some of the shot were picked from the wound through the mouth.

The bark Navarth will sail for Portland to-morrow morning.

The galleries of the House of Representatives were densely packed with people last Monday night. Only three Chinamen, however, were present.

OREGON LEGISLATURE.

Seventh Biennial Session.

Senate.

MORNING SESSION.

SALEM, Oct. 23, 1872.

The Senate met at the usual hour, and the President announced his signature to several important bills.

Mr Strahan, from the Joint Committee on Printing, submitted a report of the printing Expert for the present session.

This report speaks in flattering terms of the work of the present and immediate past State Printer, and fully exonerates the Expert who has measured the work from any mismeasurement or fraud in his allowance for the work

Mr Watson moved that the vote by which H B No. 67 relative to fees of officers was lost, be reconsidered. Carried.

Mr. Moores introduced a joint resolution requesting the two Houses to go into joint convention this evening at 7 o'clock, for the election of officers to be thus elected.

Mr Hoult moved to lay the resolution on the table. Lost—ayes 13; noes 11.

Mr. Strahan moved that there only be elected in such convention two Capitol Commissioners and a Superintendent of Public Instruction. Lost ayes 11, noes 13

Mr. Hoult moved to lay the resolution on the table. Lost—ayes, 11; noes, 11.

Mr Fay moved that the resolution be made the special order for 2 P. M Carried—ayes, 12; noes, 10.

Mr. Monroe offered a Joint Resolution that L. F. Mosher and Z. F. Moody, contestants for seats from Douglas and Wasco counties, be allowed mileage and per diem for the session

Mr Cornelius, moved to strike out Mr. Mosher's name.

Mr Bristow moved to amend by inserting the name of A. M Wilhaic, contestant from Benton county.

On motion L F. Mosher was invited to address the Senate upon the question under advisement.

Mr Mosher accordingly addressed the Senate upon the question to which he defended his claims to a seat in the Senate from Douglas county.

Mr. Fay moved the resolution be referred to the Committee on Claims with instructions to allow the contestants mileage and per diem only for the time actually employed in contesting their claims, and that L F Mosher be only allowed mileage and per diem up to the indefinite postponement of his case at the present session. Carried.

A message was received from the Governor announcing the veto of H B No 3, repealing the Portland Police Bill.

Mr Dolph said he heard this message read with an intense feeling of disgust for its author. Two years ago the Legislature took away the right of the people of Portland to govern themselves. The effect of that action has already been witnessed in the appointment a few days ago enacted in this city, in which the Portland Chief of Police, who was appointed under that law, permitted a State official without cause and without any excuse or shame. He does not wonder that the Governor vetoed the bill passed two years ago, under false representations made to them, but these representations were infamously false; and now, when the people of Portland demanded its repeal, when he and his present colleagues came here, backed by eight or nine hundred majority as a rebuke for the enactment of that obnoxious measure, he was greatly surprised at its veto. The police system of this city was important within the city of Portland, and should be kept free from the control of rings or creatures of any one man power. The people of the city of Portland are capable of self government, and he, as their representative on the floor, demanded that right for them

Mr. Myers said he wished the expression of sympathy to the principle of self government, made by the Senator from Multnomah (Mr. Dolph) had extended to the oppressed and down trodden people of the South during the long and bloody years of our late war. He thought, considering the record of the Senator's party upon the question of self-government, his clamoring for that principle now was in very poor taste.

Mr. Baldwin said he had listened to the declaration of the Senator from Multnomah, in regard to self-government with feelings of pleasure, as they showed that he had met with a change of heart upon that subject. The place to express himself upon the veto of the Governor was when the bill was before the Senate, and not after repeal of the Police system had been voted down. He thought, considering the record of the Senator's party upon the question of self-government, his clamoring for that principle now was in very poor taste.

Mr. LaDow offered a joint resolution to amend the Constitution of the State, fixing the salaries of officers as follows: Governor, $2,500; Secretary of State, $2,000; Treasurer, $2,000; Judges of Supreme and Circuit Courts each, $3,000. The resolution was adopted by a vote of 19 to 12.

Mr. Pattou moved a suspension of the rules to read a resolution offered by him, which had been laid on the table, directing that both Houses meet in Joint convention at 11 o'clock. The motion prevailed and the resolution was adopted.

A Senate joint resolution amending the Constitution of the State by providing for the election of judges of the Supreme and Circuit Courts in distinct classes, was concurred in by the House, by a vote of 35 to 4

A Senate joint resolution amending the Constitution by providing that all public buildings shall be at the seat of government, unless otherwise provided, was killed by a vote of 15 to 22—the italicized clause being the "skeleton in the closet" that clogs being the amendment.

Mr. Cronin offered a joint resolution that both Houses adjourn at 12 o'clock.

Mr. Cronin also attempts to amend, during which not a little filibustering was done. S. J. R. providing in the usual manner to amend the Constitution of the State by abrogating the article relative to State Printer, and providing that all necessary printing be let to the lowest responsible bidder, was adopted by the House.

A motion to take up S. J. R., relative to the appointment by the Governor of Commissioners and other elective officers which may be vacant at the close of the session, provoked a bitter discussion on the conduct of the Democratic members, whom, it was

THURSDAY MORNING OCTOBER 26 1872

Philosopher Statesmen and Philanthropist

Most persons who have attended carefully to the fact which have been brought to light or rather called to mind during the present political contest in regard to the vacillations of Horace Greeley do think the war will be ready to believe him capable of any conceivable inconsistency No other man occupying a prominent position in the political affairs of the nation has shown so little stability or displayed such want of settled principles governing his political course He has been called a Philosopher Statesman and Philanthropist, but for what reason it is impossible to perceive unless those names have been given him in irony for of all the political men of the United States he least deserves to be considered a philosopher or statesman Philosophy presupposes some settled principles from which to reason In politics it presupposes some system of social axioms or postulates, by which social problems are to be solved, for politics is simply the practical application of social science to the affairs of the world It further presupposes some definite and fixed ideas upon the civil powers of the Government over the individual—upon the relations of the several branches of the Government to each other,—upon the mutual relations of different nations—upon the rights of conqueror and conquered—upon the political exigencies of war abroad or insurrection at home—for all these are but the ordinary matters with which states men have to deal This is the common sense of political philosophy, and it is a test by which every man s pretensions to statesmanship may be determined That Horace Greeley lacks every quality of a philosopher, a statesman, or a philanthropist, is susceptible of demonstration His tergiversations upon all the main questions that challenged the wisdom of this nation from the commencement of the great rebellion, down to the time when he conferred upon the Administration the favor of his open hostility, were a source of constant annoyance and embarrassment to the friends of the Government and of strength and encouragement to its enemies A single instance will illustrate When the rebels of South Carolina fired upon Fort Sumter, in 1861, and the nation sprang to arms, Mr Greeley's voice rang out on the air of the astounded North against coercing the insurgents into submission In that crucial moment, the immense influence of Greeley s Tribune was thrown in favor of those who sought to compass the overthrow of the nation Affecting the Areopagus, he announced the right of secession to the people of the South, and declared that there "should be an honest, unterrified vote of the Southern people, and if they approved, if the people of the South said they wanted disunion he would consent to it ' It is well for the country and for the cause of free government, that Mr Greeley was a mere masquerader, instead of the final arbiter of the destinies of the government, which he seemed to suppose himself to be It is well that such a man as our sainted Lincoln, instead of Mr Greeley, occupied the chair in which Washington had sat, and that the reins of government were held in hands guided by a fixed purpose, and not by the whim of the passing hour.

But his turning his back upon the Government at that crisis, showed more than simply the fickleness of Mr Greeley's patriotism It showed that his labors for the suppression of slavery, by which alone he had distinguished himself, had been prompted by no broad views of the inhumanity of the system, but simply by a disposition to separate the United States Government from the institution The slaves might remain slaves, and the clanking of their chains might be heard across the imaginary line of the new Southern frontier of our free country, from the Atlantic to the Rocky Mountains, without shocking the sensibilities of the philanthropic Greeley It was a matter of no sort of importance that by the proposed separation, the people of the great free North would be forever cut off from interposing their good offices to ameliorate the condition of the enslaved race Mr Greeley s object had been to divorce the Government from slavery, and when that was accomplished no matter by what means, he would be satisfied, though the chains should be riveted upon the colored race for all time He was not prompted by solicitude about the safety of the Union for his plan contemplated the dissolution of the Union He was not prompted by a desire for the abolishment of slavery, for his plan insured the perpetuation of slavery Let those who believe Horace Greeley to have been actuated to his course by sentiments of humanity, and not merely by one of those unaccountable whimsies which over and anon seize upon his capricious nature and carry him into the most irreconcilable and contradictory positions, inhale the following distillation of his great benevolence and universal love of mankind and say what they think of him then

"But nevertheless we mean to conquer them—not merely to defeat, but to conquer, to SUBJUGATE them—and we shall do this the most mercifully the more speedily we do it But all the rebellious traitors are overwhelmed in the field and scattered like leaves before an angry wind, it must not be to return to peaceful and comfortable homes They must find poverty at their firesides and see privation in the anxious eyes of mothers and the rags of children"

Here is a sentiment worthy of Caligula or Nana Sahib, deliberately penned and published to the world, by one who, we are told, is a political philosopher and statesman and a philanthropist Let the fathers and brothers and sons of those women and children of the South vote for him if they can Let the generous people of the North whose magnanimity, after the fratricidal struggle was over, eclipsed even the steadiness of their principles and the heroism of their sacrifices while it was being waged vote for him if they can And let all who vote for him be prepared to state whether it is his secessionism or his Unionism his philosophy or his instability, his humanity or his sentiments of unparalleled barbarity that have challenged their admiration and secured their confidence

According to information compiled from the last census reports in the twenty years since 1850 till 1870 there was only one important product in the United States which has decreased—that of Indian corn. The production of wine has increased fourteen fold, hops seven fold, barley six flax six Wheat has trebled and oats doubled Live stock has trebled in value and now is worth $1,52o,000,000 or an average of $200 to each inhabitant The value of animals annually butchered is $100,000,000 Wool has increased from sixty million pounds to one hundred million The crop of Indian corn report of that of 1860 by 7 000,

A prominent shipper of wheat and flour from Albany furnishes the following figures on freights from that point being the charges actually paid by him

WINTER OF 1870 1

Freight per ton all rail from Albany to Portland by river to Lindsay Island, thence by rail	$4
Freight from Portland to San Francisco	3 50
	$7 50

WINTER OF 1871 2

Freight by river from Albany to Portland	$3 00
Extra for portage charges to Oregon City	50
Extra for transfer at Portland	50
Freight from Portland to San Francisco	5 00
	$9 00

This increase of rate per ton is $1 50 and is all made between Albany and Portland This gentleman states that he has paid more than two thousand dollars freight in excess of what the same shipments would have cost at the former rates We have some figures from the same source showing the manner in which discrimination has been exercised against the river in order to swell the volume of business reported on the railway which we shall give to our readers hereafter

Here is the opening paragraph of the leading article in the Washington Patriot of the 10th instant—the next day but one after the October elections

It is useless to disguise that the State elections on Tuesday have not fulfilled our expectations The results have disappointed us in many ways but chiefly in demonstrating that the Liberals have not shown the strength they claimed with so much confidence This is not the moment to consider the causes which may have led to a failure so apparent and unfortunate We look at the naked fact as it stands without investigating its philosophy There will be time enough for that inquiry hereafter when it may be pursued with out any other feeling than that of calm and practical analysis

The Patriot is a leading Greeley organ

Three days before the October elections the New York Tribune under the head of Advice to Disconsolate Grant Men Gratis said "Don t waste all your tears on Georgia save them for next Tuesday So say we now to our disconsolate Greeley friends —Don t waste all your tears on Pennsylvania, and other States that have blasted your hopes but keep them for next Tuesday week

Gen John A Dix the present Republican candidate for Governor of New York, was the Free Soil candidate for the same office in 1848. It was during that campaign that he made use of the expression "Let us draw a line of freedom around slavery like that of fire around a scorpion and leave it to sting itself to death

The vote in the Senate yesterday upon the question, whether the Portland Police Bill should pass notwithstanding the Governor's veto, stood ayes 12, noes 10, Senator Patterson voting with the Republicans So, there not being two thirds in favor of the bill, the veto is sustained

The Washington Chronicle is now published seven days in the week Its first Sunday issue was on the 4th instant The Sunday edition is devoted to general news and miscellany

FROM THE CAPITAL

[FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT]

SALEM Oct 24, 1872

The storm is over and quiet reigns again The Lock bill is dead—dead—dead! Over its remains the last and rites have been performed and now it is laid away to moulder in the archives of state No trump can sound blast loud enough to wake the sleeper From the dust of a century some curious antiquarian may rescue it long years hence, and wonder what manner of people it was that were so blind to the material interests of Oregon, as to yield thus obediently to the dictates of a monopolist who sought unlimited power The Lock bill is dead It died hard, leaving behind it the tracks and traces of a contest never to be forgotten by those who were engaged therein It lived just long enough to see its vital germ planted deep in the minds of the people The Lock bill became—unconsciously—the embodiment of a living principle the perfect liberty of the people It awakened the serious inquiry Shall Oregon be dependent on the bounty of any one man or corporation? A short sighted policy which looks only to the immediate result on our pocket, compassed the defeat of the measure There were some indeed, who sacrificed their own convictions of right and duty to the pressure of public opinion These have said in justification of their conduct We are here as representatives of the sentiment and thought of our constituents Our own opinion must stand aside in presence of the majesty of vox populi They may be right—we believe they are honest But would it not be dangerous to carry out this principle in all legislation? If the voting population of Washington county should petition Mr Colter for the enactment of a law removing all restraints upon the liquor traffic, would that gentleman bid his conscience be still that he might vote for the iniquity? I think the case is not put too strongly Yet we have no complaint to utter against any of the gentlemen who saw fit to change their mind and so we leave the determination of the much vexed question, "Was it right?" to the skilled casuist But if I may hazard a prediction I venture the prophecy that within four years there will be a complete reversal of this unfortunate verdict that those who to day are reviled and scoffed at by the insolent beggar of the Bulletin will in that day receive a worthy recompense for the courage with which they made this valorous defense of the people s rights in the Legislature

'WORK, FOR THE NIGHT COMETH

As the session draws to a close there is less talk and more work The mental reservoir of the gentleman from Multnomah has ceased to flow—is probably empty, as he crammed for the forty days only The irate "Champion of Marion" so called (by himself) is serene as a midsummer sky His naturally sweet temper having regained its equilibrium one grand disturbing cause is removed and we have strong hopes that the Seventh Regular Session will die at peace with all the world Signs of its dissolution are already seen on every hand The Sergeant at Arms brings forth his capacious trunk at the stilly hour of midnight and in its cavernous recesses looms of snowy Carow letter and legal cap are safely stowed, together with numberless erasers inkstands, pens penholders etc all of which constitute the spolia opima of his office (It may be proper to remark by way of parenthesis, that this officer has been suckered out of the fools cap by the gentleman from Multnomah) The lobby looks on this general confiscation with tearful eyes They had hoped that some member whose faith in human nature had never been shaken even by a term in the Oregon Legislature would leave his penholder or his bottle of mucilage outside his desk

And still the Senate refuses to adjourn

was appointed (by the House) for last night at 7 o clock but the Senate with remarkable perversity journed to its regular hour this morning The probabilities are that none of the State officers will be elected at this session

There is a link somewhere but just where it is nobody knows Last night the House refused to consider S J R No 20, which gives the Executive power to appoint Capitol Commissioners if the Legislature adjourns without electing The course of the House in this matter is severely criticised by many as it effectually defeats the Act appropriating $100 000 for a State Capitol

of H B No 3—Portland Police Bill—was received last night by the House It seemed to create little comment as it had been expected some days ago Mr Caples denounced the veto in unsparing terms and thought the House should promptly rebuke the Governor by passing the bill without debate The question being 'Shall this Bill pass notwithstanding the veto of the Governor' the ayes were, 31 noes 15

So the Bill passed by a Constitutional majority

HOME JOINTS

Mr Patton asked unanimous consent to introduce a Joint Resolution providing for a Convention to be held at 11 A M to day but objection being made the resolution went to the table

The House passed a bill empowering the County Court of Lane county to appropriate $30 000 from the County Treasury for the purpose of building the State Agricultural College, which has been located at Eugene City of Republican members was held at nine o clock where debate ran high on the question of final adjournment Nothing was accomplished The fact is the two Houses are at swords points and the Senate seems to hold the strongest hand, for the Lower House cannot adjourn until the Senate agrees to do so

THE THIRD HOUSE

held a prolonged and enthusiastic meeting, beginning at 9 and closing at 11 30 Judge Watson the Lion of Baker was the chief orator Numerous potations had beclouded this gentleman s intellect somewhat nevertheless he afforded infinite variety of sport for the audience One remark caught my attention as I was leaving "General Grant and I were personal friends in boyhood s sunny hours When he was a retired Captain in Galena, Illinois, I was Judge on the Bench in that State, and my reputation was co extensive with the latitude and longitude by virtue of which Illinois is a great State There never arose but one question between us That question was entirely of a social nature The Judge referred to the charges of dissipation by virtue of which General Grant s enemies assailed him and insisted that the question of dissipation was 'strictly a social' question and did not belong to politics He declared himself in favor of the re election of Grant and announced that he should vote for him

The learned Judge was followed by A B Meacham and Lish Applegate, each of whom received thunders of applause every six words

I think the Lobby was on a spree

The roof is being put on the new building for the Sisters' School at Salem

CITY.

TRINITY Excursion —Yesterday the Guard held their eighth annual target excursion The ground first selected was the bottom of the city, but was subsequently changed to Johnson's Addition, west of the city. The sky broke unpropitiously. The sky became lowery and threatening, accompanied by occasional showers At one o'clock the company assembled at their armory, corner of Alder and Second streets, headed by the East Portland band, and marched through several of the principal streets, and thence through several of the back streets to the selected spot for the practice

On arriving at the ground the following officers were chosen, to act as judges Captain Caballo, Lieutenant T Harrington, Ensign John Morgan and Mr Campbell. The target having been set up, at a distance of 200 yards, and having been duly "stood," the sport commenced from the "stand," the following is the list of prizes awarded and distributed OFFICERS' PRIZES.

1st prize—Case of wine presented by Captain J R W Fleckenstein won by Captain J R W

2d prize—Case of wine presented by Lieutenant John Storan won by Lieutenant John Storan

3d prize—keg of ale presented by Sam won by Lieutenant Maloney

MEMBERS' PRIZES.

1st prize—Company medal and gold coin presented by Lieutenant John Storan, won by Lieutenant John Lappeus

2d prize—Fifteen dollars in coin presented by Sergeant W H Courtenay.

3d prize—Fifteen dollars in coin presented by Hamilton Boyd; won by J J Barrett.

4th prize—Handsome breastpin presented by Rosenheim, won by F. Zan.

5th prize—Amethyst sleeve buttons presented by H L Stone

6th—Photograph album presented by McCormick; won by B Kiernan

7th prize—A book—"Overland Three Months" presented by H L Herman, won by Elich

8th prize—Handsome Cashmere vest presented by J O'Neil & Co won by Sergeant Preston

9th prize—Hair watch chain presented by Stewart, won by Thomas O'Brien

10th prize—No 15 parlor stove presented by Millwain; won by John Cortoran.

11th prize—A pair of youth's red top boots presented by Major E. Caballo, won by Conkley 12th prize—Colored set presented by Skidmore, won by Wm. Hickey.

13th prize—One dozen photographs presented by Joseph Buchtel, won by James Lyon

14th prize—This prize was won by Dan Lyon as awarded by the judges.

15th prize—Leather medal, won by T Malloy

After the practice was concluded and the prizes awarded, the company reformed and marched back to the Armory with the national colors flying and the band playing a lively number attended the practice who did not belong to the company Although the weather was very favorable to the occasion a good deal of inexperienced among the "boys," and hardly any of the best of spirits prevailed.

Last evening the occasion wound up with a GRAND BALL which was given at the Armory of the Guard to a large number of ladies and gentlemen The presence on the occasion, which was a most pleasant one. Dancing was kept up till an early hour morning, when the party dispersed.

MONEY DEPOT —We called attention a few days since to some of the claims which had been allowed by the City Fathers, and recommended the same careful examination of some of the bills which were paid by the city might bring about a reduction in the heavy taxes which the people have to pay One person's claims which we have seen in print night awakened some of the Councilmen to a sense of the fact that a situation with the police force in our city is not a sinecure position One individual charges $75 for watching the city prisoner during the month of October, and at the same time puts in a bill of $100 for killing 50 rats What other persons this individual has will be forced to fleece the city and render his position a sinecure, we do not, but one thing is certain that no labor done by the person in question should be considered for a much less compensation. Everybody knows that the services of this individual are not worth to the city one half the sum charged It is not certain, however, that the city is just in a condition to help herself at present, and the management of such matters as these should be left in the hands of the people and vested in the power of the State Since his excellency has refused to overrule the will of the people, as expressed by a majority of their representatives, we call upon him in the name of the tax payers of Portland, to limit the number of officers this canine slayer can hold, or at least we call upon the Council to reduce his pay in some way as well to the proportions of capitalist, who preside over the rights of the people with impunity as the 'most illustrious,' or dreadful in the mind of one of our more modern temporaries" Every one in the city knows the capacity of the man who makes these charges and knows that $175 gold coin per month is a most exorbitant price for the people to pay for his services

TRINITY CHURCH ORGAN.—The organ which is used in the new Trinity Church, an order for the manufacture of which was sent East some months ago, arrived on the last steamer. This instrument was built at Boston by E. & G. Cook & Hastings at the expenditure of $5,000 in coin of money As shipped, it comes in 2 large cases, and the total weight is about 10 000 lbs. The which was given at the Armory of the Guard A large number of ladies and gentlemen lent their presence on the occasion, which was a most pleasant one. Dancing was kept up till an early hour this morning, when the party dispersed

RAFT DRIFT —We called attention last week to some of the claims which had been allowed by the City Fathers, and recommended that a more careful examination of some of the bills which are paid by the city might bring about a reduction of the heavy taxes which the people have to pay One person's claims which were presented last night awakened some of the Councilmen present to a sense of the fact that a situation connected with the police force in our city is not a barren position. One individual charges $75 for guarding the city prisoners during the month of September, and at the same time puts in a claim of $100 for killing 50 dogs. What other perquisites this individual has which tend to fleece the treasury and render his pocket plethoric, we know not, but one thing is certain that the labor done by the person in question might be secured for a much less compensation Everybody knows that the services of this individual are not worth to the city one-half the sum which he charges It is not certain, however, that the city is just in condition to help herself at present, as the management of such matters is taken out of the hands of the people and vested in the Governor of the State Since his excellency has seen fit to overrule the will of the people, as expressed by a majority of their representatives, we would advise him in the name of the tax payers of Portland, to limit the number of offices which the spoils slayer can hold, or at least authorize the Council to reduce his pay in some way lest he may to the proportions of capitalist, and overrule over the rights of the people with as much impunity as the "most illustrious," who is so dreadful in the mind of one of our morning contemporaries Every one in the city knowing the capacity of the man who makes these charges, knows that $175 gold coin per month is an exorbitant price for the people to pay for his services

TABOR CHURCH ORGAN.—The organ to be used in the new Trinity Church an order for the manufacture of which was sent East some months ago arrived on the last steamer This splendid instrument was built at Boston by E & G G Cook & Hastings at the expenditure of a large sum of money. As shipped, it came in 34 packages and the total weight is about 10 500 pounds The organ is now in sections at the Church and will be put up in the course of about three weeks The instrument is probably the finest of the kind in the State It is of elegant workmanship, the case being of appropriate style and design, made of black walnut wood, the height 18 feet, width 12 feet, depth 8 feet. These dimensions are such as the organ would require when not restricted in any way by limited room The height can be varied from 16 to 22 feet, or more, as appearance may require, or may be reduced to 11 feet if necessary, by increasing the width and depth, as in the latter This organ has 22 stops and 938 pipes, the latter being richly ornamented in gold and colors. Two experienced organists, Messrs Shellard & McCrath, of San Francisco, have been engaged to put the instrument in order, and will commence their work at once The entire work will be under the special supervision of Mr. Geo L. DePrans, through whose agency the negotiations for the instrument were effected.

TAGGET.—In the Bulletin of yesterday appears an item under the heading of "Somebody's Fault" which does injustice to the pilots on the river, and contains several incorrect statements Speaking of the Lark Dee, which is now aground near Swan Island, the Bulletin says 'We are informed upon reliable authority, the channel at that place is sufficient depth to admit the passage of vessels drawing several feet more water than does the Lark Dee Certainly the blame rests somewhere and with pilots having so strong a love as the Duke Thompson it becomes nearly inexcusable The facts in the case are that the water directly in the channel is 15½ feet at low tide, the Lark Dee is directly in the channel, and is drawing just 21 feet. It can readily be seen why the vessel could not pass that point, there not being sufficient water in that her As to the incorporeance of which the statement is equally reckless Captain Dickson, who had the Lark Dee in tow at the time she struck, has been plotting on the river for the last twenty years, and certainly one of his long experience could not be called "inexperienced" The Lark Dee will not be able to get away except by lightering or waiting for the moon tide No possible blame attaches to the pilot, for owing to the draught of water several powerful tugs combined would not be able to drag the vessel through

FOUND—Bound Over —The case of State vs Jim Miller, charged with the two offences of keeping open a place of amusement on Sunday and also for the keeping open a house and room in which intoxicating liquors were kept for retail and of selling and dispensing of intoxicating liquors on Sunday, came up for hearing before Justice Ryan yesterday afternoon The defendant demanded a jury trial on the first charge which was granted The jury found him guilty and the court imposed a fine of $10 and costs, amounting in all to about $50 This was paid and the case thus discharged. On the second complaint the defendant waived an examination and was held to await the action of the Grand Jury in the sum of $100

DRAMATIC.—Mr. Pierpont Thayer recently from leading part at the Metropolitan Theater San Francisco in "Hazael," the great Australian sensation play.

To day, eight years ago, J S Potter opened the old Wallamet Theater with Jo in Dean Hayne as the star (Mr George B Waldron was stage manager Miss Ione Robinson (Getzler) was also a member of the same company.

RAILROAD MAGNATES.—The San Francisco Chronicle of Saturday, says 'The Northern Pacific Railroad party, consisting of Gen Geo W Cass W B Ogden, Frederick Billings Charles D Wright William Windan, T H Canfield and Samuel Wilkinson, Secretary arrived in the city on Wednesday from Oregon by sea Yesterday Messrs Cass Billings and Wright started East by rail, to attend to urgent railroad business in Dakotah the other members of the party will remain here a few days The track of the main road is now laid from Lake Superior to the Missouri river, 495 miles and from Kalama to Hodges 60 miles. Next year 100 miles will be completed from the Missouri river to the Yellowstone, at the mouth of Powder river and 200 miles from the Columbia near the mouth of Snake river to Pend d'Oreille Lake From Portland to the mouth of Snake river a distance of 270 miles, there is good river navigation and also on Pen d'Oreille Lake and its tributary river there is good navigation for 120 miles so that at the end of 1873 the company will have 600 miles of steam communication at each end of the line with a gap of 700 miles to be completed afterward '

SUDDEN DEATH —Our readers will be pained to hear of the sudden death of Mr A H Jordan, the well known architect, which occurred yesterday afternoon at his residence on G street, at the end of Park Mr Jordan went home as usual at noon and after dining retired, as his wife supposed, from the house to attend to his duties Not long after Mrs Jordan hearing some unusual noise in an adjoining room repaired to the apartment and upon opening the door Mr Jordan fell forward in an apoplectic fit He remained in an unconscious state till six o'clock when he expired Mr Jordan was highly esteemed by all who knew him

PIGEON SHOOT.—We learn that there is some talk among several members of the Sportsmen's Club of getting up a pigeon shooting soon. The subject has been agitated but nothing has yet been definitely determined upon—neither time nor place fixed

VERY FUNNY —Nast's and Josh Billings' Comic Almanac for 1873 have been laid on our table by O C. Barrett, book seller There is enough fun in them to keep the most sober man in a good humor during the whole winter

LOADING —The bark Edward James is loading with lumber on the Sound, for Shanghai, China She will carry away in the vicinity of 400,000 feet and will sail for her destination about the first of next month

ON TRIAL —The case of Wash. Brady, who stabbed Chas Tropo at Vancouver a few weeks ago for alleged improper intimacy with his wife, was on trial yesterday in the District Court at that place

BEACHED —The tug Ben Holladay was beached at Astoria a few days ago and a new propeller attached This tug has been towing vessels for the last several weeks with only one propeller

Undeveloped Vigor

The feeble and debilitated usually fancy they are in a more prosperous condition than they really are The nervous circuit of nature are not easily exhausted Even when strength and appetite fail when the eyes are heavy and lustreless the complexion pallid, the nerves trembling, the body attenuated and the mind depressed there is generally a reserve of latent power behind such palpable and palpable evidences of weakness Various modes of treatment are resorted to by physicians in the hope of developing and rendering available this store of sleeping vitality but the only thoroughly safe and reliable means of awakening the dormant energies of the system, is a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters Electricity shower baths the fleshbrush, sea bathing, etc may be well enough in their way as auxiliaries but they do not reach the source of the evil All physical debility proceeds either from a derangement of the functions of the assimilating, secretive and vital organs or from a sluggish constitution In either case, and also in cases where both causes exist, the Bitters will favorably produce an immediate and salutary change in the condition of the patient and eventually effect a complete cure None of the dangerous alkaloids too often administered as tonics can be otherwise than deleterious under such circumstances, and to give mercury is positively criminal The direct effect of the great vegetable alkalo will be manifested in an improved appetite, a more cheerful frame of mind a gradual return of strength, an increase of flesh and a healthier complexion Meanwhile, however the constitution if inert and feeble will have been roused and renovated by the subtle elements of invigoration contained in the Bitters

PLANTATION BITTERS!

This wonderful vegetable restorative is the sheet-anchor of the feeble and debilitated. As a tonic and cordial for the aged and languid it has no equal among stomachics. As a remedy for the nervous weakness to which women are especially subject, it is superseding every other stimulant. In all climates, tropical, temperate or frigid, it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits.

POLITICAL NOTES

The hypocrisy of this man Greeley approaches sublimity.—I Oakley Hall.

"If any man attempts to haul down the American flag, haul him on the spot."—H G

Mr Greeley is not an orator, says the Golden Age No one ever claimed that he was a Webster, or Chatham, or Burke. Oh, no! he only rises to explain.

Horace Greeley says "A purely selfish interest attaches the lead, ruthanic, criminal and dangerous classes to the Democratic party" It might be interesting to know what has drawn Mr. Greeley in the same direction

Mr. Boutwell says Mr. Greeley asked him, during the past three years and a half, to do twelve things inconsistent with each other, and either of which, done in the way proposed, would be fatal to the business interests of the country.

H. G.'s familiar characterization of a Democratic district is, "a district where there are ten gallons of whisky to every spelling-book." It is fair, therefore, to presume that Vermont and Maine can boast of ten spelling books to every gallon of whisky.

If the South can't be reconciled till they get an opportunity of going out of the Union whenever they want to, by a popular vote, as proposed by Mr. Greeley, we incline to the opinion that they will suffer for reconciliation, for a long time, says the Cincinnati Chronicle.

Greeley might as well say that the soldiers of the Union went into the war to kindle "bitterness and hate," as to say that they met at Pittsburg for that purpose, says the Albany Journal. Their purpose was the same in both cases—to save the nation and preserve what gives it value.

Whoever travels and observes the drift of public sentiment, says the Albany Journal, will be forced to the conclusion that Greeley is to be badly beaten. The "sign" has not been so palpable these twenty years. The West is especially emphatic for Grant, and Democrats who repudiate Greeley are counted by the score in every township.

The Brooklyn Daily Union says: "We are very sorry that Dr. Greeley did not prolong his visit in Western Pennsylvania and Indiana, not that he is not doing good service for the Republicans whenever he opens his mouth, but he could do Gen. Grant no much more at the West than he is like to do in Baltimore, where his efforts are of no account to anybody."

Oakey Hall says: "When Horace and I were Whigs together, years ago, at caucuses held 'to raise money'—generally held, as they should be, at the houses of rich men, and assisted (as they always ought to be, and to Horace's great delight) by nice suppers—I have heard rougher suggestions about the use of that money from this cleanly shaved Pharisee of a politician (H. G.) than I have heard at any Democratic caucus."

Flooding Ignorance.

[From the S. F. Alta.]

The white Democrats of Georgia having succeeded in carrying the election to their own satisfaction, by means such as we indicated yesterday, the facts drawn from the statements of their own newspapers, and corroborated by the evidence of Republicans present at the election, on the next day succeeding the farce called an election, though the press intended to be ignorant of the causes which led to the Republicans leaving the polls by thousands without having voted. It was plain enough why they left—they were not allowed to vote. And where simple refusal to receive the votes of the colored men was not deemed sufficient, force was used, and the pistol, in the hands of white Democrats, became the means of scattering the poor unarmed negroes, and thus securing their, "glorious" victory.

Says the Savannah Republican of October 4th—the second day succeeding the election farce—"For some cause unintelligible, to us, the enemy has by no means brought out his full strength in these State elections, but on the contrary, at the last hour, seems to have adopted the policy of letting the elections at many points go almost by default. Thus they wasted here, Wednesday, probably not less than one thousand negro votes." And it says that they played the same game in other places. It is plain enough to any candid mind that they left the polling places by the thousand because they were deprived of their rights there—their votes refused, and in some cases themselves fired upon and numbers of their fellows slain. The Republican says they played the same game in other places—probably for similar reasons—because their votes were rejected and their lives were in danger.

The Republican says they will not play the same game at the Presidential election. It is to be hoped that they may not have the same reasons for leaving the polls. If there is any authority and power in the country that can prevent a repetition of such infamous outrages, it should be exerted. It is to be a Presidential election, and the General Government should see to it that the people, of whatever condition or color, who are entitled to vote, shall not be deprived of that privilege, as in the recent election, by the villainy of white judges and inspectors of elections, nor by the pistols so freely used at Macon and perhaps elsewhere. Interference, except under extraordinary circumstances, is not to be commended; but the right to vote should be maintained under all circumstances.

When one gets at the facts of this Georgia election, it will appear very much in effect as some of our local elections in past years in this city, when the polls were taken and held possession of by the roughs, and afterward the ballot-boxes were manipulated to suit the Democracy. But, at the Presidential election there will be a difference. Mr. Stephens and his friends, who all went for Smith for Governor, will most assuredly go for Greeley. And, in a fair election, they are probably numerous enough to hold the balance of power. We do not believe that the same plan of villainy will then be permitted. And, if a fair election shall be held, there is no sure thing that the vote of the State shall be given to Greeley.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

Gold in New York to-day, 114.

Portland Legal Tender rates, 87c buying; 88cselling.

Average California Wheat in Liverpool, 12s 11d; Club Wheat, 13s 6d.

The steamer John L. Stephens brought to port this morning 104 tons of assorted cargo

The Jane A. Falkenburg has completed discharging cargo.

The ship Siam will commence to receive her cargo shortly.

The bark Forward is receiving cargo for Honghong

The Loch Dee is still aground at Swan Island Bar.

The ship Zouave is lightering at Kalama

Several barks are due, but none seen off the bar at last accounts.

It would seem that there is to be an end to the stringency which has existed in the money market for some months past, from the tenor of our latest advices More especially is this indicated by our exchanges just received from the East. We are not in a position to state just what reliance can be placed in the San Francisco dispatch of the 21st inst, concerning the shipment of specie to this coast from the East to loosen the financial stress, but we think the report lacks confirmation However, there is no doubt that the precautionary steps which have been taken and which became necessary to avoid disaster, have had a very salutary effect, though that effect may not have reached our local market We clip from our Eastern exchanges the following under date of the 12th inst.

The N. Y. Mercantile says "The extreme stringency of the money market has given way The Government Banks of $5 000,000 in coin Monday noon, and took in payment for the same certificates of deposit of four National Banks, which were designated by the Treasury Department, and purchased Bonds to the same amounts paying for them in Legal Tender Notes This operation, it will be observed, will put into the Banks a total of $10,000,000 for the time being."

The N. Y. Times says "There is a much improved state of things in the market to-day, as well in trade departments as in Wall street. The sense of relief from an apprehended panic in the money market and in the Foreign Exchanges, upon which, at this critical season of the year, the immense business of New York with or for secont with the South and West is generally dependent, is quite universal."

"The timely action of the Government on Monday in relieving the corner in Gold, and restoring steadiness to the money market, is very generally commended by the business public, irrespective of party considerations It is easy enough, of course, and very convenient in the midst of a Presidential canvass, for the opposition papers to carp at 'Treasury interference' in the direction of financial relief, but this is nothing as compared with the clean cut which they would have raised in the course of a few days if the severe pressure of last week and the deadlock in the foreign Exchanges had been suffered to run into panic The difference in the situation might well justify any change, the ability of the Treasury to act in one or the other direction being considered The Bankers and merchants of this great city, who have already seen and felt the good accomplished for the common financial and commercial interests of the whole country, are not likely to be moved by individual criticisms upon the Government with their inspired by party spirit or worse than idle theories of Government duty."

The scarcity of tonnage is thus noticed by the Commercial Herald of San Francisco

"Tonnage continues exceedingly scarce as will be seen by what follows Freights, however, are plentiful to all ports We want ships for a mixed cargo to New York same t Hongkong and elsewhere Vessels are also wanted to go to New South Wales for coal, others are wanted for lumber and outside cargoes. The fact is many important interests are now languishing for want of vessels even at the high rates prevailing Home to Hongkong by steamer is now charged £9 per ton and other ports in proportion—all high The entire coasting trade southward is now in the hands of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, and we believe the service will be performed more satisfactory than ever before The current rates to Liverpool for wheat, £ 10s, and to Cork £5 15s."

The same paper says that in consequence of the extraordinary advance in the price of iron during the past few years, a good deal of attention is being turned to the deposits of this metal known to exist at many points in California and elsewhere on the Pacific Coast Pig iron commands a higher price at this time in England than it has done for fifty years before, the appreciation having amounted to nearly 100 per cent within a single year The question of utilizing the black sand that so largely abounds along the sea coast of California and Oregon, for the manufacture of iron, has been agitated, and is likely to lead to some efforts being made to settle it in a practical way. Competent parties acting in the interest of capitalists have been in the field during the past few months examining other of our ferruginous ore deposits, with a view to erecting extensive smelting works, if they can secure raw material of the right kind, and find other conditions favorable. If there ought to be no trouble on this score, we may hope to see this branch of manufacture carried on here with success, and on a very large scale
